II. Criteria for Selection of Books :

1. Books in Odia language will be selected as much as possible. However, in the interest of national integration, the books in Hindi, English and other regional languages may be selected. On the same consideration, translations of Award Winning Books of other regional languages being published by the National Book Trust (NBT) under "Adan Pradhan Series" may also be selected.

2. Since rural public libraries are required to cater to the needs of neo-literates and people with limited education, some books should also be selected for these rural public.
3. Books should be selected physically and the selected books should be retained as "Specimen Copy" for price verification.
4. Books will be selected under the two broad categories, viz. (a) General and (b) Children.
5. Books written, edited, compiled, translated or published by the Members of the State Library Committee and Book Selection Committee will not be selected during their tenure.
6. Only the price printed in the book will be accepted as correct price and will remain valid for one year from the date of submission of the sample copy. Books without printed price and whose price has been altered by pasting slip or rubber stamp shall not be selected.
7. The sample copies of both selected and unselected books will not be returned to the publishers. These books will however be distributed free of cost to the suitable public libraries afterwards.
8. The publishers of the selected books should submit 200 copies of the selected books at a time within 30 days of issue of the supply order and in no case, extension of time will be allowed.
9. While selecting books, priority should be given to the books having ISBN (International Standard Book Number).
10. Ordinarily, the books exceeding price Rs.1,000/- may not be selected.
11. More than one book of an Author/ Writer shall not be selected.
12. The books awarded by the Central Sahitya Academy and Odisha Sahitya Akademi will be selected without referring to the Book Selection Committee, if not selected in the previous years. Besides, another one book of the above Awardees may be selected by the Committee, if found worthy of selection.
13. The following categories of books or authors who have achieved national recognition or prestigious awards and their works have been published after rigorous qualitative scrutiny shall be included in the select list of books.
  - (i) Books in Odia, Hindi or English which have been awarded by the Central Sahitya Academy or Odisha Sahitya Akademi.
  - (ii) The original Odia works translated into Hindi or English by the Central Sahitya Academy Awardees.
